

RCVP Cabinet Roles and Responsibilities

Sydney Gee, RCVP 5778-5779

General Cabinet Responsibilities

- Make outreach calls for each event
- Assist with and/or help lead services and religious programs
- Be available as a resource for information about Judaism, Jewish identity and Israel for other NFTYites
- Help the elected RCVP in writing services and religious programs
- Maintain a strong work ethic, which includes responding quickly and providing feedback

Positions and Position-Specific Responsibilities and Requirements

Songleading Team:

- Help lead Shira, Havdalah and other services
- Separate from the rest of the cabinet as their own team
 - Not required to help write services as they are going to be leading them, although they are encouraged to help anyways! :)
- Requirements:
 - Instrument preferred but not required
 - Familiarity with the main prayers of each service and their tunes
 - Flexibility and ability to quickly learn new tunes

Jewish Cultural Liaisons:

- Work closely with other cabinets, most likely SAVP and PVP, to incorporate Judaism into all parts of the event
- Help generate and lead fresh, creative methods to include Judaism in new ways
 - Examples: Jew-pardy optional mandatory, playing Israeli music during meals, etc

- Requirements:
 - Flexibility and ability to work with other cabinets

Israel Engagement Team:

- Help develop Israel-centered programs
- Provide honest, unbiased information about Israel for anyone interested
- Help lead and moderate productive discussions about Israel
- Requirements:
 - Knowledge about Israel, Israeli history and Israel's current political climate
 - Ability to maintain productive discussions about potentially sensitive topics and diffuse tensions
 - Ability to look past their own opinions to provide unbiased information
